December Student of the Month is NOLAN

Nolan Moore

working hard to learn the material and rise up to the challenge. Additionally, he MOORE. Mr. Hough says, "Nolan has made great strides to stay on top of his work during this year and has shown an impressive dedication to school. He started the year picking a difficult class to be near friends. However, despite the level of the class he has been

has been diligent in making sure he does not have any large or missing work and he has been asking for help often to make sure his work gets done right. The amount of growth in character this is showing is phenomenal and deserves to be rewarded.

Nolan is a dedicated young person who has a good heart. He often can be found walking through the halls with his friends and laughing with them. If he starts to misbehave, he is quick to adjust his behavior and apologize without repeated offenses down the line. His humor is entertaining and he keeps the jokes relevant and appropriate in class, trying to bring a laugh to teachers and fellow students when appropriate."

Congratulations Nolan and thank you for putting forth the effort that led to you being nominated and chosen!
